

The LINC Up

JULY 2017

This month we are celebrating the freedom that we as Americans enjoy so much. Many have sacrificed their lives for us to live in a country with unimaginable freedom. Much of the world does not have what we in Americans take for granted.

It is also a good reminder that Jesus made the biggest sacrifice of all by giving His life, so that we can walk in freedom! God loved us so much and wanted us to be free from the wages of sin and death. So that meant something or someone had to be the sacrifice for us. Before Christ's death on the cross, believers in God had to sacrifice a spotless lamb frequently to feel the freedom of sin in their lives. But when Christ died and then rose again on the third day, He paid the ultimate price for our freedom once and for all.

Now if someone gave their life in place of you giving yours, won't you be telling everyone you could about it? That is what we at LINC Madras are doing. Showing the love of Christ so that those who walk in our door burdened can walk out in freedom. We want everyone to know about God's redemption plan and how Christ fulfilled it. Join us in sharing the story of God's redemptive love to those who are still living in bondage by being a part of LINC Madras. Let's celebrate our freedom!
