Feature of the Month

Has there ever been a time that you have questioned why God allowed you to walk through the certain situation? In Psalm 51 we find an answer to that question. King David had sinned grievously and when confronted, he fell on his knees and prayed for God's mercy and renewal. In verse 13, the psalmist then states that he will teach others God's ways. What a great answer to why we are led through trials and tribulations! So that we can proclaim the goodness of God and see sinners return to Him!

Here at LINC, we are in the business of proclaiming the goodness of the Lord. Many of the volunteers here have been through the valley themselves and are able to empathy with those who walk through the LINC doors. God has put us on our knees so that we can encourage and pray with clients and see them turn to God.

Next time you are doing through a difficult trial, ask God to show you how you might minister to someone else and show them Love in the Name of Christ.

LOVE BITS:

As spring starts to creep into Central Oregon, LINC is seeing more and more homeless people come in. They are in need of food, hygiene items, and a shower. For each person who comes in, we try to share the love of Christ and help them as we can. The other day as one of our new clients headed out the door, he said, " I love this place. They are so awesome!" Another client sitting in the waiting room replied, " I know, right! They have helped us so much!" It was a heartwarming moment for those of us who overheard the conversation. May we continue to work for His glory!
